A glistening super pub standing three storeys high, decked out with its own gold class cinema complex has been proposed for one of Sydney's youngest suburbs, Oran Park.

The multimillion-dollar entertainment precinct would signal the coming of age for the town which only a decade ago was a functioning racetrack and the only residents were the grazing cows on empty paddocks.

Now Momento Hospitality, the operators of Bella Vista Hotel, plan to deliver one of the Sydney's leading pub and entertainment venues to the Camden area — the fastest growing region in Australia.

The unique entertainment facility would feature a rooftop cocktail lounge, a picturesque beer garden, first class restaurant and bistro as well as a woodfire pizzeria and cafe planned for the ground floor.

Two cinemas, each with a 40-person capacity, is planned for the first floor of the entertainment complex alongside a number of function rooms.

Momento Hospitality CEO Marcello Colosimo said he couldn't wait to join the growing Oran Park community.

"Oran Park Tavern is going to have the best of the best," he said.

"It's going to be one of the best pubs in Sydney and locals will have the opportunity to not travel out of the area to get it.

"It will provide a chance to create memories in all facets of life, whether that be birthdays through to sporting events, or even just having a casual drink."

Plans were lodged to Camden Council last week with Mr Colosimo hopeful of construction beginning mid-2020, pending approvals.
